Romulus Homeowners Hear Progress on City Charter

ROMULUS--After a short meeting of the Romulus Charter Commission at the local Water Building, members met with the Homeowners Association in the Progressive Hall last week.

Mickey Rogalle, commission chairman, told of what the commission had done thus far, namely, having talked with officials of Wayne, Westland, Riverview, Allen Park, Taylor, Dearborn, besides hearing from Paul Bray of the Michigan Municipal League, who left material for all to read concerning types of city government.

The Romulus Township Board, the local fire chief and police chief have, also given their thoughts as to what a new city would need.

The other city officials were invited so as to discuss their own form of government, what they thought about it, and whether they would rather be under another form of city government.

THE COMMISSION members asked many questions so as to find out from the officials' experience what they would think should be included in a new charter for Romulus.

Among questions asked were those on taxation, civil service, number of council members, terms of officials, elected at large or from wards; are clerk and treasurer elected at large, do city employees have to live in the city, do you have partisan or non-partisan elections?

Questions also were asked by the Association members: what will the taxes be for a city; how do we know what the officials will assess, also the school or county?

Lenton Season

(Editor's Note: The following article is the second in a series of Lenton Sermons by area pastors and leading churchmen. This week's article was submitted by Rev. John B. Rose, associate pastor of St. Anthony's Catholic Church of Belleville.)

JESUS THE POLITICIAN?

A recent book, "Jesus and the Zealots," attempts to prove that Jesus was really a political leader among the Jews and that He was put to death by the Romans to protect their interests in Palestine. According to the author, the Gospels covered this fact over in order to enable the infant Church in Rome to survive.

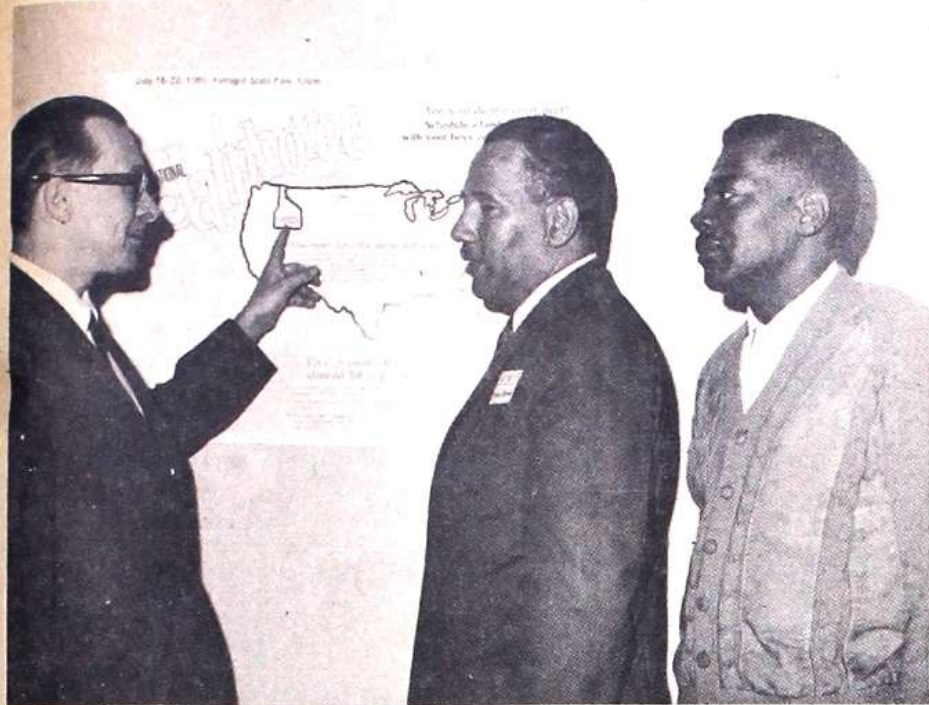

Although the book seems to have been written with great care and scholarship, I don't think it will be able to prove its point. But it does raise another question that is well worth discussing: How political was Jesus?

The question is important these days because churchmen and the Church have been becoming more and more involved in the politics of the day's social issues. The Fair Housing Ordinance of the State of Michigan, for example, would never have been able to pass had it not been for the strong and very effective lobbying of the denominational representatives in Lansing. This is politics pure and simple. Does the Church have any place in it? What is the example we have in Jesus?

TO BEGIN with we have to be aware that there was no clear distinction in Jewish society between religion and politics. The chief priest and the temple council, the Sanhedrin, had been important forces in Jewish politics for well over a hundred years by the time Jesus was born. The Pharisees comprised not only a religious group but a political group as well. The air was full of rumors, during the time of Christ, of a great religious leader who would lead the Jews out of bondage to Rome.

When Jesus began to teach, then, He was seen as a religious and political leader. We have little to prove that He tried to form a political party, but He was political nonetheless. He was political when He drove the money changers from the temple, since it was a political decision that gave them access to the temple. He was political when He attacked the Pharisees for their neglect

Once you have the facts, you'll open a Security Time Savings Account!

QUESTION 1: Is there a difference in interest rates?

Answer: No, but there is a difference in the way interest is computed. Our interest rate on time savings accounts, like everyone else's, is 5%. However, ours is compounded continuously! This means that your money is working for you, every minute of every day.

QUESTION 2: How much money do I need to open a Security Time Savings Account?

Answer: Unlike some time savings plans, $1,000.00 is all it takes!

QUESTION 3: How much money must I deposit in order to add to my account?

Answer: You may deposit $50 or more in your account, at any time. This is the lowest minimum deposit requirement available in the area!

QUESTION 4: Do you offer a periodic statement?

Answer: We feel it's important for you to know what your money is doing. As a result, at the end of each calendar quarter, you'll receive a statement that shows transactions made and interest earned. At the end of the year, we'll send you a special statement, for tax purposes.

QUESTION 5: What about withdrawals?

Answer: You'll be able to withdraw savings that have been on deposit for a full calendar quarter, during the first 10 days of each succeeding quarter, without notice, or at any time with 90 days advance (the minimum legal requirement) written notice. You'll earn maximum interest until the day of withdrawal.

QUESTION 6: What can I do with interest earned?

Answer: We'll be happy to credit interest to your Security Time Savings Account, another account, or mail you a quarterly check. The choice is yours.

QUESTION 7: What about a passbook?

Answer: You will receive a handy passbook-type folder in which to keep all of your records.

There you have it . . . seven good reasons for opening a Security Time Savings Account. No bank pays more, but one does more!

HOMEOWNERS

Question-How much time do we have to pass a charter? Answer, up to two years.

Q-After two years, can we be annexed? A-After two years, unless a charter is approved, we revert back to township and the surrounding communities can attempt to annex, but Romulus can again get the required signatures to again put the question of becoming a city again on the ballot, if they act quickly enough.

Q-What can we do about a better building code? A-That will be up to the city elected officials. Talk to them about that.

Q-How are we going to find out what's in the charter before we vote on the question? A-There will be meetings with clubs and citizens, at schools, etc., to explain the charter provisions before it comes up to a vote.

Q-When will we vote on the charter? A-We hope to start writing within three weeks and possibly be able to vote on it in November.

Tonight's (Wednesday, March 19) meeting of the Charter Commission will find other city fire and police chiefs as guest speakers.

of the needs of the poor and their hypocrisy, because the Pharisees were a political party. He was political when He urged His followers to give to Caesar only what belonged to Caesar, since the politics of the time urged people to reject Caesar entirely.

But Jesus was not political for the sake of politics; He was political for the sake of people. He saw the devotion of the people mocked by the avarice of the money changers, so He went into action. He saw the sufferings of the ordinary people trying to follow the impossible guidelines of the Pharisees, so He condemned them. He saw that Caesar was not doing harm to the ordinary people but only to the nationalistic fanatics, so He asserted Caesar's right to rule.

We as the Church and members of the Church should do no less than He for Whom our Church is named. We must become political for the sake of people. There is no group in our society that has the job of espousing the interests of the people, especially the poor and the weak. Jesus did it in His times. A good Lenten activity would be for us to do the same in our times.

But we better watch out. The crucifixion was a political decision too.

ASCS Office Gives Program Alert

WAYNE--The Wayne County ASCS Office will take applications to participate in the farm program any time through March 21, and producers are urged to file their applications, Arthur Monks, chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, announced.

The programs are voluntary and farmers sign up for them in order to take part, Monks said. Signup brings into focus crop plans for the year ahead. In short, farmers indicate their intentions to take part in the programs for 1969, including the extent to which they will participate in the wheat and feed grain programs.

Under the feed grain program for 1969, farmers may earn diversion and price-support payments as well as qualify for price-support loans on their corn, barley and grain sorghum crops.

The wheat program provides diversion payments for reducing acreage below the farm allotment, and price support loans on all the wheat produced on the farm. It also provides marketing certificates to bring returns to full parity on the part of the wheat allocated for domestic use.

Monks said that additional details on the commodity programs are available from ASCS personnel aiding in signup.

According to the Almanac,
Today's the first of Spring;
The time of year is drawing near
When birds should start to sing.

According to the Almanac,
Which covers up my lawn.
If that be so, then why the snow
Which covers up my lawn.

According to the Almanac,
As any I have seen.
But every bow's as barren now
As any I have seen.

According to the Almanac,
We'll soon be planting flowers,
But flowers can't grow through ice and snow,
We first must have some showers.
The Robins soon will come;
But he's the bird, so I have heard

That isn't quite so dumb

According to the Almanac,
'Twill soon be time to plant;
I'd like to sow, but don't you know,
The ground's so hard, I can't.
Some sow their within the moon,
But I have always found
In every test, they do their best
When planted in the ground.

So keep your dog-gone Almanac,
Then I'll believe it's Spring.
When I can shed my undies red,
Then I'll believe it's Spring.

'Galaxy's' Test Pilot Honored by Local Airbuffs

By Bill Balogh

LOCKHEED TEST PILOT--Leo J. Sullivan, received national and historical recognition at the annual banquet of the Michigan Aeronautics and Space Association and Ford Aerosports Club staged at nearby Greenfield Village this past weekend.

The presentation was on behalf of the American Aviation Historical Society to Test Pilot Sullivan, who piloted the world's first jumbo jet on its maiden flight June 30, 1968. The aircraft, the C-5A "Galaxy", is the largest airplane flying in the world today.

First to pilot the new generation of giant jet aircraft, Sullivan, now assistant to the deputy chief development test engineer at Lockheed-Georgia Company, compared the possible economic impact of the fast flying massive cargo carriers to that of assembly line production methods introduced by the old T-model flivvers, to the invention of the steam engine for sea and land transportation.

Sullivan also stated that the Air Force C-5 Galaxy he flew was "historically significant" to America's defense and the economic development of many nations.

Henry Ford Museum. Other famous aviation pioneers that were guests were Ed. Hamilton, who 44 years ago piloted the first scheduled air cargo flight between Dearborn and Chicago. Also at the VIP table was Maj. Gen. L.G. Fritz who flew the first contract air mail in 1926 from Dearborn to Cleveland, Ohio.

The famed test pilot told an attentive audience full details of the huge C-5 Galaxy, now in flight testing, and that it has a gross weight of 728,000 pounds and without question the largest airplane in the world.

"It is an aircraft big enough to haul two 100,000-pound Army tanks, several trucks and jeeps, along with the men to drive and maintain them, or as an airfreighter big enough to transport 300,000 pounds of containerized freight."

"An airplane of this cargo hauling magnitude can popularize the movement of freight by air just as mass production of early model cars and trucks popularized the transportation of people and freight by highway," Sullivan said.

THIS IS one of the many reasons, Sullivan observed, that the C-5's entry is a major event in aviation history, a field that is dotted with achievements since man first flew powered aircraft. "Developing and flying an aircraft as large as the Galaxy is historically significant because it indicates there apparently is no limit to the weight of cargo that can be flown," he continued.

This development of military and commercial aerial giants will add virtually unlimited weight to cargo flying through the skies, just as the invention of the steam

Ford Motor Wins Award for Safety

Outstanding safety performance by its employees during 1968 earned Ford Motor Company the National Safety Council's highest honor for the 12th time since inception of the award program.

Lost-time injuries at Ford facilities across the United States were at a level of .75 per million man-hours worked in 1968.

"This record means that for every million man-hours worked, less than one of our more than 213,000 U.S. employees (excluding subsidiaries) had an occupational lost-time injury or disease," explained Edwin D. O'Leary, Ford vice president - Personnel and Organization.

The National Safety Council said Ford will receive its Award of Honor for 1968, the council's highest recognition for an exceptional industrial safety record.

SUMPTER TOWNSHIP BOARD,
Mike Kozma, Supervisor
William Gouger, Clerk

HISTORICAL FIRST FLIGHT—Another big milestone in aviation was reached when the first of the giant jumbo jets took off on its maiden flight. Historically significant, the mammoth C-5A "Galaxy" proved that there is no limit to size that a jet can be built and flown. It comes within feet of covering a football field. Upper left shows the exalted relief of Test Pilot Leo Sullivan taken moments after he landed the Galaxy after the first flight.

planes, weighing upwards to 1-1/2 million pounds.

The veteran test pilot reported that even as the C-5 Galaxy is being flight tested for the Air Force, Lockheed is showing to airlines plans for even a larger plane, the L-500, commercial airfreighter weighing 833,000 pounds. These planes could be in operation by 1973. And if this is not enough, meanwhile advance design engineers are already studying plans for even bigger requiring many stops. The C-5, with refueling capability, could fly non-stop around the world in a matter of hours. In a few years, it may be possible to pilot a nuclear powered aircraft non-stop around the world, and keep circling again and again till the crews become weary and land the plane. The C-5 is large enough to even house a nuclear reactor."

Commenting on Pioneer Pilot Hamilton's achievement in flying the first air cargo scheduled flight in 1925, Sullivan said: "This flight was a very important first. Obviously, an aircraft of those early days of aviation could not airlift any sizable load, nor could it fly it very far. It is easy to see how far aviation has come when you look at the size of the C-5 and its planned commercial derivative, aircraft that can take with between 250,000 and 300,000 pounds of cargo and carry it across countries and oceans with ease."

Pack 231 Mothers Set Dance

BELLEVILLE--The Boy Scouts of Troop 231 were issued tickets to sell for the Annual Dance to be held April 19 at the Belleville High School.

The Moon Dance given by the Mothers' Auxiliary this year features the "Corallations" of Ann Arbor.

A portable color television and a portable black and white television set will be given away during the evening. Advance tickets are $1 and sales at the door will be $1.50.

THE AFFAIR has been a very well attended dance for the teens of the Belleville-Van Buren area in past years; the success for this says Mrs. Dorothy Emhoff, dance chairman. "is the cooperation of all the parents in planning and supervising the evening".

The money earned through the dance has helped the troop make several worthwhile trips that have included Colorado, New York-Washington and Hawaii.

Plans are not formed for their next trip scheduled for 1970 but the boys are working hard not only for the success of the dance but in their scouting achievements as well.

The troop lists over 40 boys under Scoutmaster Lee Hallett.

The Letter Box

TO THE EDITOR:

What happened to the "Memorial to Our Servicemen". It was to be decided upon by our Belleville City Council?

It's time, NOW, for our town to give honor to our boys who served and are now serving in the Armed Services. Special honor to those who gave the "supreme sacrifice", their lives.

Surely Belleville should be able to erect a fitting memorial to all our local servicemen.

To them and their families this WAR is "REALISTIC".

Mrs. Robert Hoeft

It's Girl Scout Week and I'd like for you and the rest of the staff of the Belleville Enterprise to know how much we appreciate your interest in and support of Girl Scouting.

southern Wayne County, thank you.

MR. HOUSE SPEAKS

Woman's Study Club
Meets At Hooten's

Mrs. Theodore Hooten, of High street, opened her home to members of the Woman's Study Club Wednesday, March 12. Mrs. Royce Smith, president, conducted the business meeting.

Plans are being made for members to attend the Michigan State Federation Convention at the Statler Hilton, in Detroit, on March 24, 25, and 26.

Mrs. Gladys Mast, chairman of the American Cancer Drive in our community April 16, 17, and 18, asked for volunteers to serve as block leaders or to canvass one street.

Announcement was made that the annual banquet in May will be held at Hillside Inn, Plymouth.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Lee Stokes, representing the Committee on Education, introduced the speaker for the evening, James House, consultant in Secondary Education for the Intermediate School District of Wayne County. He spoke on "Negro History" and the need to have it incorporated into public school curriculum. He reported that more courses are being made available.

A question and answer period followed.

Refreshments, carrying out the St. Patrick's theme, were served by Mrs. Lester Hannah and Mrs. Andrew Krebs.

ROTARY LADIES NIGHT—Enjoying an evening out with their wives Wednesday, March 12, were some 27 members of the Belleville Rotary Club whose destination for dinner was the 'Rathskellar,' in Detroit. Richard Smith, a member of the club, shot this over-all scene of the group at their dinner tables. You'll recognize a few of our local citizens.

ALOHA'S THE WORD

GETTING IN last Tuesday, March 11, after a 20-day vacation were Mrs. Leona Agge, of S. Biggs street, Mrs. Mae Fulton, of First Street, and Mrs. Mary Williams and Mrs. Betty Taylor, both of Huron River Drive. The foursome, all widows, was among the group of 46 to enjoy a Hawaiian tour sponsored by the Ann Arbor Recreation Department.

Leaving Detroit Metro Airport, the quartet made a stop in Chicago and spent a day in Los Angeles where they visited Disneyland and had dinner at Knott's Berry Farm before continuing on to the Islands.

Disembarking at Honolulu they were greeted with the traditional leis and kiss of welcome to Hawaii. Five days there included a tour of the city and the Hawaiian handicraft to see mums and aloha shirts being made, swimming in the ocean, and, of course, lots of shopping. They also took a boat tour to Pearl Harbor, then traveled to the island of Kauai for several days where they viewed pineapple plantations, sugar cane fields and great profusions of native flowers.

The island of Molokai was also on their itinerary as were the coastal areas of Hilo and Kona. At Hilo they visited Kong's Orchid Gardens and the lava fields where the mass of lava, they were told, could pave a four-lane highway around the world four and a half times. At Kona they toured the largest privately-owned ranch in the world, the Parker Ranch.

Hi There,
Amanda

The birth of their fourth child, a daughter, is being announced by Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Wood, of 46680 McBride Road, Belleville. Born March 6 at Annapolis Hospital, Wayne, the new addition was named Amanda Hope.

On hand to welcome her home were Robin, six; Stacie, four and a half; and David, 15 months. Their mother is the former Normalee Guenther, daughter of Mrs. Louise Guenther, of S. Biggs Street.

She's Called Lisa

'And baby makes three' is the theme these pre-spring days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Bouchillon, of 1393 Russell, Ypsilanti. Their first child, a daughter, was born March 8 at Beyer Hospital. Weighing 7 lbs.-12 ozs., she was named Lisa Marie.

Her mother, the former Paula Gray, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Gray, of Denton Road. The baby's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William S. Bouchillon, of Endicott Street.

Fancy Easter Eggs
Home Arts Subject

Twenty-eight members answered roll call at the March 10 meeting of the Home Arts Club at Belleville High School. Two guests, Gwen Liebeler and Lu Krakowiak, were introduced.

The annual club banquet, set for May 12, was discussed as was the possibility of a new meeting place.

Jean Hanks, program chairman, explained and demonstrated the making of fancy Easter eggs. Using eggs which had been blown and dried, she used rick-rack, sequins, tiny cut-out pictures, pearls, and other trim to fashion interesting eggs for holiday use on an Easter egg tree, as decorations, etc.

The refreshment committee used bunnies, chickens, and other Easter items for the table centerpiece. Cream puffs filled with ice cream and topped with hot fudge were served by Anita Parsons, chairman; Betty Vincent, Shariene Tator, Lee Smith, Diane Moriarity, Sharon Richendollar, and Jane Rockwell.

St. Mary's, Wayne
Is Setting For
Double Ring Vows

White gladioli and lighted tapers graced the altar of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Wayne, as Elaine Louise Wisniewski and James Michael Ashley exchanged nuptial vows Saturday, March 1. Father Raymond J. Sayers read the double ring nuptial rite which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Wisniewski, of 22939 Sherwood Road, Belleville, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ashley, of 42925 Fret Road, Belleville.

Some 50 friends and relatives were assembled for the three o'clock ceremony which was followed by a reception at the P.N.A. Hall, Belleville.

ESCORTED TO the sanctuary by her father, Elaine appeared in a creation of Chantilly lace and peau de soie. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline and wristpoint sleeves with a chapel train falling from the shoulders. The bouffant skirt in formal length was of peau trimmed in lace.

Her mid-back bouffant veil of silk illusion was held by a double crown encrusted with seed pearls and she held a cascade bouquet of white carnations and ivy.

For her 'something borrowed', Elaine held the white lace handkerchief which her mother had carried on her wedding day. 'Something old' was a hand-made slip belonging to a friend, Diane Goforth, whose grandmother had worn it on her wedding day 53 years prior.

As her sister's honor attendant, Mrs. Theresa Mullins, of Belleville, donned an apricot gown of Jarkenda styled with a scoop neckline, and A-line skirt accented with Venetian lace. Her accessories were in avocado and her bouquet was comprised of matching carnations.

Two of the brides cousins, Sue and Judy Kotlarczyk, came from Tecumseh to serve as bridesmaids. Their frocks were identical to the matron of honor's and they held bouquets of carnations tinted in apricot.

SIX-YEAR OLD Jeanette Vecchio served as flowergirl at her cousin's wedding wearing an apricot frock similar to the senior attendants'. The basket she carried was filled with apricot-tinted carnations.

Another of the bride's cousins, four-year old Wally Dunayczan, carried out the role of ringbearer.

John Gibbons, of Belleville, served as best man. Ushers were Gary Mullins, brother-in-law of the bride, and Greg Ashley, brother of the bridegroom, both of Belleville.

At the reception, the bride's mother welcomed some 250 guests wearing an aqua lace dress and matching accessories. For her son's wedding, Mrs. Ashley wore a blue lace dress with black accessories. Both mothers added corsages of white carnations to their ensembles.

Also attending were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Walter Baran, of Wayne, and Mrs. James T. Stiltner, the bridegroom's grandmother, who came from Grundy, Virginia for the occasion.

A 1965 graduate of Belleville High School, Elaine attended Cleary College and currently works as secretary for the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, Ann Arbor. Her husband attended Belleville High and is employed by the Ford Motor Company.

Trombley-Duncan Vows Exchanged

Rebecca Duncan, of 21941 Rust road, New Boston, and Floyd Trombley, of 1046 Gavord road, Sterling, were united in marriage March 1 at the District Court Building, Ypsilanti. Judge Hutchinson officiated at the double ring rite at eleven in the morning.

For her wedding, the bride chose a dark turquoise lace coat over a matching crepe A-line street-length dress. Her accessories were in silver and she wore a corsage of red and white carnations tied in silver ribbon.

Mrs. Edna Duncan, of Flint, was her daughter's Brian William Is His Name

Richard and June Kivel, of 16294 Oakbrook, Romulus, are announcing the arrival of a baby boy, Brian William, February 23. Born at Hutzel Hospital, Detroit, the new addition weighed 6 lbs. 7 ozs. The grandparents, who reside in New York, are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kivel and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Smith.

attendant wearing a dress of rose-colored lace with white accessories. Her pink carnation corsage was tied with white ribbon.

The bridegroom asked his father Leonard Trombley, of Flint, to serve as best man. Michael Trombley, five, and Michelle Trombley, four, served as page and flowergirl at their father's wedding.

Twenty-one were present for the family breakfast which followed at the bride's home in New Boston. Some 125 guests attended the evening reception there coming from Standish, Flint, Pinconning, and Brown City.

It takes an expert to grade beef!

In our great country we're lucky. Our government trains and employs experts... men who inspect and grade beef at hundreds of locations throughout the nation. They protect you... and retailers, like us. That's why A&P is happy there's a U.S. government inspector on the premises of our meat plant serving this area.

Also important are A&P's OWN beef experts. Their job is to see to it that A&P Beef measures up to our own "SUPER-RIGHT" quality standards... No wonder we don't hesitate to guarantee that the "SUPER-RIGHT" Beef you buy will be as flavorful and tender as you think it should be, or your money back.

When you pick up the package, you can feel and count the rib bones with your fingers. If you don't shop A&P, try counting the ribs. If there aren't seven, you're missing select meat. THE SECOND of Sandra's showers took place Sunday, March 16, at the home of Lucille Reinhackel, on Haggerty Road. Shirley Cooper, Caroline Sherwood, and June Sherwood planned the afternoon party which was attended by some 45 guests.

Bingo and other shower games were played in a blue and white streamered room accented with clusters of white wedding bells. An open parasol, also in the wedding colors, was arranged over the prettily-wrapped presents.

The United Methodist Church of Belleville is being reserved for the spring wedding.

SKIING ON AGENDA

MR. AND Mrs. Harold Krause, of Belleville, along with New Bostonites, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Krause and son, Dennis, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Giese, spent the past week-end with the Robert Jones family in Kalkaska.

While up north the ladies enjoyed shopping in Traverse City and also chalking up a 'first' in their lives—skiing at Mount Mancelona. The Kalkaska area had about 25 inches of snow which is really a boon to those in the business of catering to the ski set.

HI THERE, BERT

THE BELLEVILLE Enterprise's own Bert Osterberg (he's our manager) is missing from the fold these mid-March days. Taking a vacation the hard way, Bert is recovering from surgery performed last Friday at Oakwood Hospital, Dearborn. We just want him to know we're thinking of him and miss having him zip in and out of this office as he does. Get well, now, hear?

Can you spare an eight-inch depth in a hallway? Put its walls to work and upgrade appearance, too, with a shelving system to store books, magazines, a collection of what-have-you. Use Douglas fir 1x8s for shelving, doubled 1x8s for uprights.

Students Produce Dramatic Poetry

BELLEVILLE--Students in Mrs. Janet Verde's eighth grade English classes at Belleville Junior High School have been experiencing the problems of writing and producing a dramatic poetry reading.

They are culminating a unit on poetry appreciation and experimentation in original poetic expression by producing a modern ballad which they have written as a class.

The students used as a model, Steven Vincent Benet's, "John Brown's Body", a ballad on the Civil war which vividly describes the war through the thoughts and feelings of people involved.

Picking topics of concern to them, they researched the historical background and recreated the scenes from history in poetic form.

TO GAIN experience in effectively communicating their thoughts and feelings to others, it was decided to produce the ballad for other classes, complete with sound effects, lighting and backdrop.

The crews had to solve such problems as designing a backdrop which created a mood rather than depicting a scene, creating lighting effects which helped establish night or day, joy or sadness and which increased the effectiveness of the poem; listening critically to the poetry for rhythm and meaning; projecting the voice and enunciating clearly; and inventing ways to recreate such sounds as the rhythmic clanging of an assembly line or the sounds of movement through a rice paddy.

Romulus' RC Unit Schedules Meet

Supervisors Back Bill Taxing State Property

Wayne County's Board of Supervisors is backing legislation which would give local governmental units the power to tax income-producing State property being used for non-essential purposes.

The board, meeting (March 6) endorsed House Bill 2054 and directed county legislative agent John M. Sobieski to work for passage of the bill in Lansing. Local governmental units would be empowered to tax state real or personal property if the property is determined to be income-producing and used for non-essential purposes so far as health, education or welfare are concerned.

A Michigan Liquor Control Commission warehouse in Lincoln Park would be the major piece of state property affected in Wayne County.

LOCAL GOVERNMENTS are losing about $60,000 annually in tax revenues because they cannot tax the property although it produces income for the state, Robert L. Tripp, 22nd District supervisor and a Lincoln park resident, reported.

"We are required to provide the full range of local services--fire, police, paving, etc.--to what is a profit-making operation without getting any tax revenue to help pay for those services," Tripp declared.

Support of the legislation was recommended by the Supervisors Legislative Committee, chaired by 19th District Supervisor Harvey J. Beadle of Redford Township.

A majority of the board also voted, 13-11, to support legislation which provides for election of a chairman and vice chairman of county boards of supervisors in each odd-numbered year.

The board also endorsed a bill which would change the name of the county legislative body to the Board of County Commissioners.

The other members of the Legislative Committee include James DeSana, 23rd District; Edmund Bizak, 24th District; Freddie G. Burton, 5th District; John S. Cook, Jr., 17th District; N. Frank Cylkowski, 16th District; William L. Dunbar, 10th District; Rudy Hickey, 18th District; Carl D. Pursell, 26th District; Eugene A. Sikora, 7th District; Frank B. Swapka, 20th District; Jerome A. Szymanski, 6th District; Ralph Patrick Turco, 25th District; and Frederick Yates, 9th District.

4-H Attend Workshop

BELLEVILLE--Among area 4-H livestock leaders that attended a 4-H livestock leaders' workshop at Ann Arbor last Tuesday (March 11) were three from Belleville: Mrs. Robert Neely, Mrs. Amos Martin and Mrs. Lowell Neely.

Two Michigan State University extension livestock specialists, Graydon Blank and Richard Dunn, instructed the 4-H leaders.

These 4-H leaders then use this knowledge and skill in leading local 4-H livestock projects.

THE WORKSHOP emphasized planning the local 4-H livestock club program.

The 4-H livestock program helps youth learn scientific livestock production and management practices. Four-H youth gain skill in these practices through the experiences of keeping records and owning and caring for livestock.

Youth in the 4-H livestock program learn integrity, sportsmanship, and cooperation. Also, they gain the ability to speak in public through participation in demonstrations, talks, judging events, tours and exhibits.

MSU State Singers Offer Brilliant Singing Tonight

AMONG THE contemporary composers are three from Michigan State. "In Memoriam" by graduate student Adolphus Hailstork was written in 1967 in memory of poet Langston Hughes. Robert Harris composer of "Kyrie and Gloria" is a graduate student in composition on leave of absence from the faculty of Wayne State University. "SABRONORBAS" by Lt. Jere Hutcheson of the theory-composition faculty, is an alphabetical palindrome. The composition is concerned with the exploitation of the diverse timbral qualities of the voice.

Ellen Baumgartner harpist and student of Miss Velma Froude, will perform Salzador's "Song in the Night" Georg Friedrich Handel's "Air with Variations" will feature Joseph Docksey, trumpet. Docksey is a senior and student of Byron Autrey.

"Las Agachadas" and "Finale" from "Canticle of Freedom" by Aaron Copland will conclude the program.

Tickets are being sold by choir members and may be purchased at the door. $1 for adults, 50 cents for students. Keith E. Drayton, director of choirs, would like to extend his appreciation to the faculty members and parents who have given of their time and energy to prepare for, and host the State Singers during their stay in Belleville, under the sponsorship of the High School Choirs.

New Type Of Youth Group

A new type of youth group is roaming the streets of Ann Arbor, Michigan. It calls itself the Gillnet Gang. Its members describe themselves as "guerrillas for good." As the Altoona, Pennsylvania, Mirror observes, "...the Gillnets roam Ann Arbor streets at night doing some rather odd things for a youth gang. On one recent night they painted a bridge, which had been covered with obscenities. On another, they boarded up an abandoned house, which had been a dangerous but popular rendezvous for neighborhood children.

They made a number of adults ashamed of themselves by filling downtown planters, which had remained barren of flowers because of a squabble over which group was responsible for them."

An assistant professor at the University of Michigan is frequently consulted by the gang for advice. He concedes that some of their activities are "extralegal." To this, the Mirror concludes, "Some will undoubtedly say an extralegal approach smacks of the vigilantes of old. But who will argue that the Gillnets are not providing a community service no one else seems capable of giving?"

Perhaps there's ground for retaining a little faith in humanity after all.

Romulus Planners Study Master Plan

ROMULUS—A hearing on updating Romulus Township's Master Plan will be held tonight, Wednesday, March 19, at the Township Hall.

The meeting will be between Parkins, Rogers & Associates, planning consultants, Detroit; and Romulus Township Planning Commission.

Officials will discuss a new Master Plan for community development prompted by rapid strides made in both residential and industrial aspects of the Township.

The current Master Plan it was reported, is now obsolete due to the expansion of Metro Airport, township growth in nearly all areas of community living and the proposed construction of I-275 going north between Huron River Drive and Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad thence to into Van Buren Township, north of I-94 expressway and south of Tyler Road.

A 90-day moratorium on zoning was recently declared to enable planners to study and amend present master plan provisions.

Plymouth Scores Most Points in Three Tests

A Plymouth Fury I scored the highest number of points of all 60 cars that competed in fuel economy, acceleration and braking tests of the Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials at Daytona Beach, Fla.

The Plymouth Fury, competing in Class V for cars equipped with standard V-8 engines, scored a total of 98 performance points out of a possible 100.

Two other Plymouth entries finished first in their respective classes, giving the Plymouth line of cars winners in three out of the nine classes of competition.

Other Plymouth winners were a Valiant Signet in Class VII for six-cylinder compact economy cars, and a Barracuda in Class IX for sports compacts.

The Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials, held under the supervision of the National Association for Stock Car Racing, compared the basic performance characteristics of American-made 1969 models which are in the popular price ranges.

The fuel economy tests measured a car's fuel consumption at an average speed of 40 miles per hour over a distance of 18.567 miles.

The acceleration tests measured the time it took a car to accelerate from 25 to 70 miles per hour.

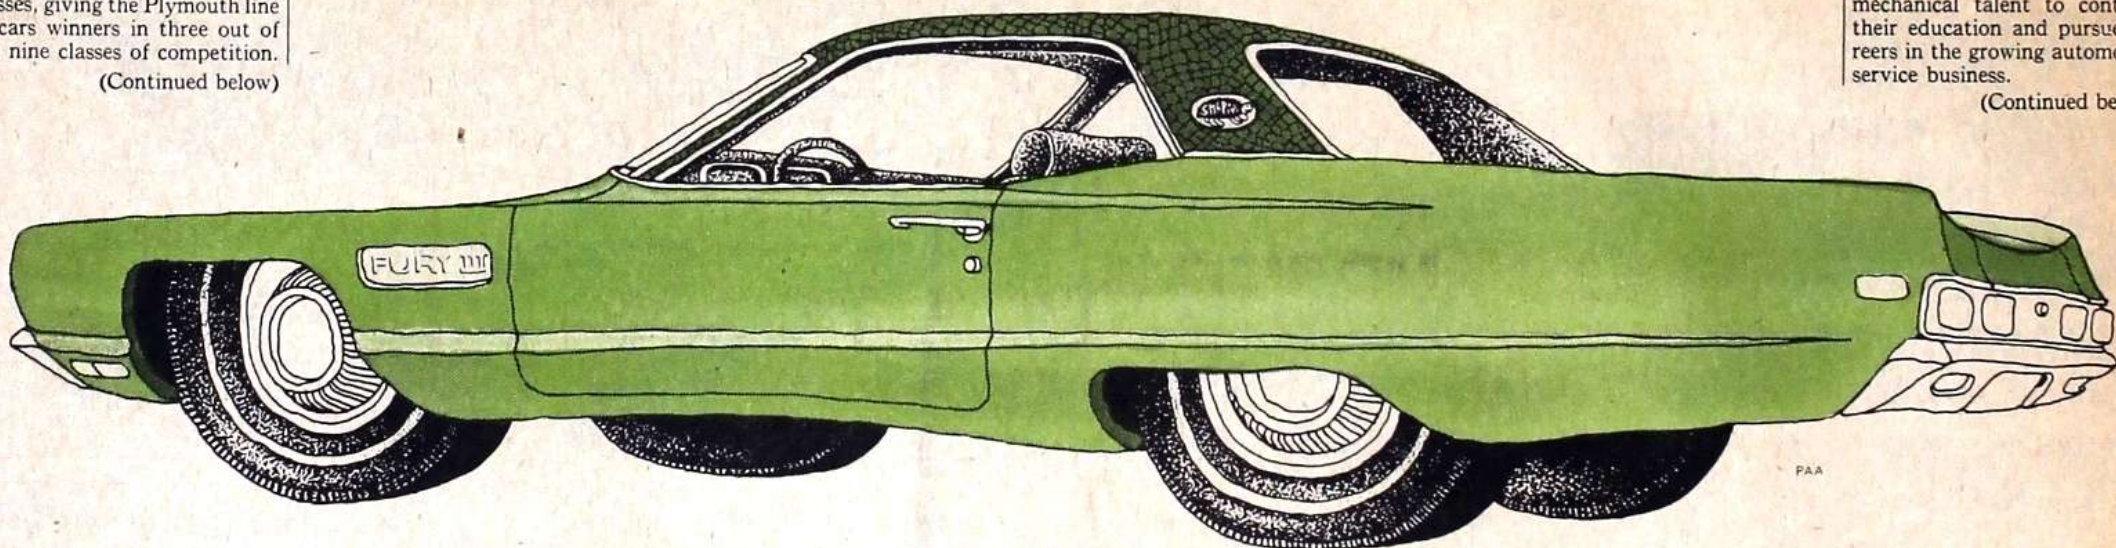

The braking tests demonstrated the car's high-speed stopping capability immediately after severe brake usage.

The 60 stock cars competing in the tests were taken directly from dealers' showrooms throughout the country to provide a realistic comparison of various makes and models.

Wagon Air Deflector

The 1969 Plymouth Fury station wagon models have a new and efficient air deflector, mounted at the rear of the roof to divert air around and across the big rear window, significantly reducing vision obstruction.

Announcing a special new Plymouth.

At a special price.

Everyone says special, but we really mean it. Snapper's a new limited edition car like Plymouth has never made before. It'll shield you from weather's whims under a groovy turtle-shell vinyl top and carry you in a metallic muted-gold body. It has a "camp" Snapper emblem, like the one in the middle, on each roof pillar. An extended roofline that lets your rear seat passengers actually lean back (over 3" extra head room). And, of course, many of the "special" features that most people want: deluxe vinyl interior, white sidewalls, deluxe wheel covers, bumper guards, and a kicky little time-delay ignition switch light, all at a special package price (again, we really mean special). Naturally, you can personalize a Snapper even more, with everything from a Super Commando 440 V-8 to air conditioning or 8-track stereo; just ask your dealer. As a limited edition model with your own personal options, Snapper is a truly individual vehicle. See one now, at your Plymouth Dealer.

2,000 Teams of Students Competing in Plymouth's Trouble Shooting Contest

Teams of student mechanics from more than 2,000 high schools and colleges in every state of the Union will compete for $125,000 worth of prizes in the 21st annual Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest.

The contest is sponsored by the Chrysler-Plymouth Division of Chrysler Motors Corporation and Plymouth Dealers of America to encourage students with mechanical talent to continue their education and pursue careers in the growing automotive service business.

The winning two-man team at each of the 100 regional and state contests being held this spring will compete for $125,000 worth of scholarships, prizes, trophies and automotive equipment for their schools at the National Finals at the Indianapolis 500 Speedway in mid-June.

Winners at local and national contests are chosen by the speed and skill with which they find and fix malfunctions under the hood of a new Plymouth and restore the car to normal operating condition. All teams work on identical cars that have been deliberately tampered with in the same way.

Plymouth Dealers sponsor a two-man team from their local school and make a Plymouth car available to practice on. The teams from the 2,000 participating schools, which have a combined enrollment of 150,000 students taking automotive shop courses, are selected by school instructors.

The Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest originated in Los Angeles in 1949. It was sponsored by Plymouth Dealers there who sought to recruit young men as mechanic trainees.

Since the contest became national in scope in 1962, scholarships have been awarded to 116 students and full or part-time jobs have been found for more than 15,000 young men.

TOWERING HIGH—Above friend and foe is Romulus' Larry Smith (50) who climaxed an outstanding season last week with a stellar performance against Garden City West in the Regional Playoffs at Livonia Franklin. Smith, who scored near 20 ppg this year, led the Eagles to the District championship. The Romulus quintet, however, was ousted by West.

West Lowers Curtains On Romulus

EAGLES FALL AT REGIONALS

Garden City West, with the finest team in its brief history, overcame its own lackadaisical performance and poor shooting by Romulus to down the Eagles, 58-46, in the Regionals at Livonia Franklin last Wednesday.

Coach Chris Babler's Tigers were outshot from the floor, 65-43, but Romulus could only hit on 21 for a low 32 percent. Meanwhile, Chris' crew was popping 20 of 43 attempts for a satisfactory 47 percent.

The Drewitz duo again was the wrecking crew, firing in 35 of their team's points and playing their steady brand of ball. Junior Rick, the 6-foot-6 center, connected on eight buckets and four free throws and brother Duane had seven field goals and a charity toss to lead the Tigers with 20 and 15 points, respectively.

Romulus outscored Garden City from the field, 21-20, but only had four of 14 free throws. The Tigers sank 18 of 35 foul shots and the difference really came when Jerry Hopkins sank ten points in a row late in the last quarter. With Romulus breathing down Garden City's neck, Hopkins sank two field goals and seven of eight charity attempts in the final frame to put Chris' Crew comfortably ahead in the last two minutes.

Coach Al Duva's Eagles started fast, leaping to a quick 4-1 lead, but two baskets by Rick Drewitz brought the Tigers back and it was nip-and-tuck the rest of the way until Hopkins' free throw finale.

With Rick hitting eight points, the Tigers overcame a pair of buckets each by Charles Johnican and Larry Smith to eke out a slim 14-12 first quarter edge as Romulus threw away opportunities and made bad passes.

Chris' Crew continued to stay in front as the Drewitz destructive duo combined for nine points in leading their squad to a second quarter 15-11 margin and a halftime 29-23 lead. Steady guard Lewis Davis kept Romulus close with three driving baskets and Johnican added three points.

Duva said after the game that he felt his team played poorly. "We outshot them 65-43 in attempts from the floor," he emphasized, "but we just couldn't hit. Not only that, we threw away two many opportunities and had quite a few turnovers."

Romulus began pressing tactics in the third quarter and at one point outscored the Tigers 12-5, to narrow the deficit to 34-33. Larry Smith, the Eagles' talented 6-foot-5 second team All Suburban Center, hit three buckets in the period and Johnican had a pair. Rick Drewitz worked underneath for seven points to keep his Tigers in front, 40-35 after three periods.

The game continued close with Romulus' Smith and Johnican staying hot, hitting seven and four points in the last stanza. Duane Drewitz picked up where his brother left off and connected for five points in the final frame to go along with Hopkins clinching free throws.

Besides Rick Drewitz's 20 points, his brother Duane added 15 to match Hopkins' 15. Larry Smith again led his Eagles with 19 markers, aided by Johnican's 15 and Davis' eight.

The victory sent Garden City West's record to an outstanding 17-2 mark and qualified the Tigers to meet Detroit Southwestern in the Regional final at Livonia Franklin. Coach Babler was (Continued on page 14)

MAN OF MANY TALENTS

Coach Gates Versatile

By JIM BRADLEY
ANP Sports Writer

When Belleville High School hired Al Gates to be their basketball coach a year ago, they probably didn't realize they were getting a man of many other talents as well. Gates, who will be 30 years old April 23, is a collector of Civil War relics and also a writer of note. And as time goes by, he is liable to make his presence felt in all three of these fields.

Al graduated from Central Michigan University in 1963 and coached the 9th grade basketball squad at Allen Park in his first year. Then he moved up to Junior Varsity and Assistant Varsity Coach.

He got to coach only one varsity game during his stay with Allen Park, and ironically enough, that game was against Belleville in their second meeting that year. "We had lost the first game by eight points," Gates explained,

"and it was a real challenge. It was a real thrill when we edged them by one point in the game I coached. And I never dreamed I'd be head coach at Belleville two years later."

While at Allen Park, Gates built a reputation of a winner, probably the primary reason he was considered by Livonia and Belleville for varsity coaching jobs. Livonia sought him for swimming coach, while Belleville wanted him for the basketball job, and that was the deciding factor in Gates' choice of moving to "Tiger Town." During his tenure at Allen Park his teams fashioned a heady 65-16 record with the Junior Varsity.

"It's been a real opportunity for me to take over a Class A school and try to build it into a power. I consider the Suburban Six League one of the best and toughest in the state," the likeable transplanted southerner explained.

"I'm going to do everything within my power to make Belleville the class of the league, and I know the major part of the job is convincing the kids and the teachers and all connected with the school that we can do the job," he said.

ROMULUS' DAVIS
Picks Up Momentum

TIGER TAMER—Romulus' Larry Smith (50) looks for a steal from Garden City West's Craig Wilson (45) in last Wednesday's regional game. The Eagles fell short against the Tigers and were eliminated from the tourney which ended with Detroit Southwestern winning the crown.

All-Area '5' Next Edition

It took some time, a little debating and a touch of controversy but the Associated Newspapers All-Area High School Basketball teams have been picked.

The teams, along with a "Coach of the Year" will be introduced next week.

Six of this year's selections were unanimous choices by the coaches and a Panel who had seen them in action. Almost all of the players made their league or All-Suburban squads.

Along with the teams will be a list of Honorable Mention.

Massey Comes Up With Fish Story

Don Massey of Beglinger-Massey Olds-Cadillac, 684 Ann Arbor Rd., Plymouth, has a fish story to tell. But his is different from most fishermen's tales. It's true!

The cigar-chomping, soft-spoken car salesman from Plymouth planned a nice easy-going fishing trip to Calloway Gardens, a Pine Mountain, Georgia, resort. He had his plans all made, but his brother and 18 large mouth Bass had other ideas.

Along about the first of March, Don contacted his brother Tom and told him of his plans for his fishing trip. Tom, who lives in Lawrenceburg, Tenn., had heard of this place where the fish were supposed to be practically jumping into the boat. And so, in the quiet, rural Alabama town of Eufala, Tom and Don rode with their guide Lee Smith as he steered his motor boat into the Cowhee River.

Within the space of six hours, the trio had caught 18 large mouth Bass, the largest was eight-and-one-quarter pounds and the smallest was 2 1/2 pounds. "I've never seen anything like it in all my years of fishing," Don said, describing his journey from behind his big desk underneath the mounted 8 1/2 pound bass on the panelled wall.

"The weather was miserably cold and rainy on Monday, March 3, the day we went out," Massey said. "But our guide Lee Smith said that a true sportsman never feels the discomforts of rain and cold. And you know, after I caught that first large mouth bass — about a five-pounder — I couldn't have felt more comfortable any place in the world."

Eufala, Alabama lies about 80 miles southeast of Montgomery and is the ideal place of peace and serenity, according to Massey. "You've heard of southern charm and comfort, well, the people of Eufala are the most hospitable I've ever known."

"Mrs. Smith, who runs a restaurant, fixed the fish for us and we were ever delicious," Massey smiled.

The trio used bait called a Hell Diver, which is a spinner-type about three inches long, with the hook concealed in hula grass. "It's name should be changed to Heavenly Dipper," Massey says after his windfall, or should be say, fish haul.

They went out from 8-11 a.m. and they came in for (Continued on page 14)

AREA RECRUITER

Sgt. Gerald Rinke Is Promoted Again

WAYNE--Sergeant First Class (SFC) and U.S. Army recruiter Gerald Rinke has an enviable record in the Army: An average of one promotion every two years.

"Pretty good promotional system I would say," exclaimed Sergeant Rinke.

Of course ability has a lot to do with it. And Rinke qualifies.

The veteran of 14 years service was recently promoted to SFC by Lieutenant Colonel Thomas E. Dinnis, Commanding Officer of Army's Recruiting Service, Michigan.

Rinke, 31 years old, of 712 H. Street, Wayne, where he resides with his wife, Sharon, and son, Dean, 3, has been an Army recruiter for two and one half years. "All the time in Wayne too," said Rinke.

"Actually Army recruiting runs in the family," Rinke stated. My father Joseph G. was an Army recruiter on the east side of Detroit "for a number of years." "Incidentally, speaking of recruiting, I can be reached at the Federal Building, 3716 Newberry Street, Wayne, for those interested in Army programs. "The number is 722-3388."

Mahalak Proposes

Emotionally Disturbed Students Get Aid in Bill

LANSING... State Representative Edward E. Mahalak (D) Romulus, has introduced a House of Representatives Bill which would require school districts to provide specialized services for emotionally disturbed students. In the past, the special programs had been left to the decisions of the local school boards.

Under the Mahalak Bill the programs would be mandatory.

Mahalak also announced he would be co-sponsor of a bill which would make state aid funds available to local school districts which transport children educated at facilities run by the State Department of Mental Health.

The amount of the aid would be set by the state superintendent of public instruction, but could not exceed 75 per cent of the actual cost of transportation or more than $200 for each pupil transported.

"Both Bills," Mahalak said, "are designed to aid the student who cannot be profitably educated in the normal system of schooling. The Bill to make mandatory educational programs and specialized services for emotionally disturbed students is, I feel, particularly needed. Just because these students cannot be educated in the traditional way is no reason they should be forgotten."

HE ADDED, "Many school districts in the state already provide specialized services for the emotionally disturbed child, and many of those special programs are excellent. But too often there is today no where for these disturbed students to go, no educational opportunities for them."

The Bill would allow two or more school districts to work together in furnishing programs and services for emotionally disturbed youths who "cannot profitably or safely be educated by the usual methods or means of instruction the public schools."

Farm Sweepstakes Winners

BELLEVILLE--Local winners of the Second Annual Standard Oil Company Farm Sweepstakes was announced Monday by Donald F. Raymond, 265 Sumpter Road, Belleville and New Boston area agent for the oil firm.

Winner of first place and grand prize was Harry Sessions of 12955 Haggerty Road. He won a 1969 International 3/4 ton pickup truck.

The second and third place prizes were won by Carl Schultz of 38855 Tyler Road. He was awarded a tractor radio and 25 gallons of gasoline.

THE LOCAL farmers are to receive their contest awards during celebration of Farmers Night to be held at Belleville's Masonic Temple, located on Main Street, Friday, March 21.

Issues of the Michigan Farmer join Standard Oil Company in the Farm Sweepstakes by publishing numbers (different in each issue of the publication).

Both Sessions and Schultz purchased issues of the publication and their numbers were later drawn as lucky numbers. The contest ran from December through February.

A registered pedigree dog must have been bred of the same breed and registered with a kennel club.

Conference on School Financing Set

Citizens from all over Michigan will gather in Lansing March 31 to dramatize their deep concern about the financial crisis facing public schools, demand that more money be provided for public education and discuss new, more equitable and adequate ways of both raising and distributing public school funds.

The Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers together with more than thirty other state-wide organizations is sponsoring "PATCHES-OR PROGRESS?" a conference to highlight Michigan's public school financing crisis and to build support for a new State Aid Formula and a new tax method for supporting public education in Michigan.

Dr. Ira Polley state superintendent of schools, will keynote the conference and will outline the crisis.

Responding to him will be a panel representing business, industry, labor, the layman and schools.

In the afternoon the conference will break into workshops by congressional districts to develop criteria for legislators to use as guidelines in considering state aid bills, and to form Citizens Task Forces for each district to implement action in the coming months.

MRS. JANE Tate, regional vice president of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers and past president of the Detroit Council of PTA, is chairman of the conference.

"Michigan's public schools are in desperate trouble," said Mrs. Tate.

"It is not just a financial crisis for the older cities of the state. Although the problem is most dramatic in Detroit, Inkster, Clintondale and Carsonville, 74 school districts had deficit budgets as of last June and the number of districts in debt will be greater by this September.

*Additional money must come through state government.

"The way we raise money is unfair to Michigan's taxpayers," Mrs. Tate said.

"The way we distribute money is unfair to our children. As the world continues to change and our society becomes increasingly complex the educational needs of our children increase." ***

THE PURPOSE of the conference is to get action this year with a new formula and necessary taxes to support it, she said.

"The critical needs of the children in the public schools in Michigan require that there be legislative action this year," Mrs. Tate said.

Conference arrangements can be made by sending a check for $4 to cover registration and luncheon to the Michigan PTA Congress Office, 1011 N. Washington Ave., Lansing, or by securing a registration form from any of the co-sponsoring groups.

These include the state central committees of both the Republican and Democratic parties, the UAW, the AFL-CIO, The American Association of University Women, NAACP, Michigan League of Women Voters, Michigan Education Association, Michigan Federation of Teachers, Michigan Farm Bureau, Michigan Association of School Boards and the Michigan Anti-Defamation League.

How far
can you trust
a used VW?

About as far as you can trust
a new one, when it's had our 16-point Safety and Performance Inspection. That's why we can guarantee 100% the repair or replacement of all major mechanical parts* for 30 days or 1000 miles. Of course, not every used VW gets this inspection. Only VWs sold by

Pack 231

Reports

Activity

BELLEVILLE-The Dens of Cub Scout Pack 231 have had busy and interesting events for the months of January and February.

In January, the boys designed and made small cars from balsa wood with the help of their dads, uncles or grandfathers for the Pinewood Derby. Eighteen cars were completed and entered for the race.

By process of elimination each car raced another down a duel track to determine the fastest car. Ron Gott's car finished in first place. Second place was taken by Steve Nelson and Dean Gott came in third position.

Dick Bassett's car took first place for Best Design and Steve Nelson took another honor for second place in car design.

The same night the boys had uniform and personal inspection.

The February Blue-n-Gold
Banquet held at the Trinity Episcopal Church was a big success starting with an excellent buffet supper.

The program followed with a representative from the State Police, Trooper Don Chappell, who brought his highly skilled and trained German Shepherd "Sarge".

The Trooper showed by use of slides and excellent explanation, the extensive training procedure of dog and Trooper together for a period of fourteen weeks.

Various awards were presented to Leaders and Cub Scouts.

Property Tax Equalization Hearing Sought

The Wayne County Board of Supervisors has invited the taxation committees of the State Legislature and officials of the Michigan Tax Commission to hold a Detroit hearing on suburban complaints about property tax equalization and the state school aid formula.

The invitation was made after a hearing was held by the Supervisors Committee on Equalization, Taxation and Apportionment on Friday, March 7, in the City-County Building Auditorium. Rudy Hickey, 18th District Supervisor and former Ecorse assessor, is chairman of the committee.

Approximately 75 homeowners and various officials from 14 suburbs aired their complaints at the hearing. Their leaders stressed that their ire was aimed at the state-imposed equalization and school aid formulas, not at county officials.

PROPERTY OWNERS from several communities, led by Westland city officials, arrived by chartered bus.

Cities and townships from which property owners and/or officials came to the hearing included Dearborn, Dearborn Heights, Garden City, Grosse Pointe Farms, Grosse Pointe Woods, Inkster, Lincoln Park, Livonia, Northville, Plymouth, Wayne, Westland, Sumpter Township and Van Buren Township.

Westland Mayor Thomas H. Brown charged that the formula used in property tax equalization results in improper and unfair taxation. He declared it is "high time" for revision to insure fair taxation. Brown also called for a change in the state school aid formula so that the amount of state school aid received in a city would not decrease when the assessed valuation of property in that city is equalized upward.

The property owners urged the Board of Supervisors to support their fight for changes in the state equalization and school aid formulas.

Sagan is Promoted By Ford

DEARBORN—John Sagan, treasurer of Ford Motor company, has been elected a vice president of the company, Henry Ford II, chairman of the board, announced.

Sagan joined Ford in 1951 as a staff economic analyst. In 1953, he became senior staff analyst in the office of the treasurer, helping handle the company's cash investment portfolio. He was elected assistant treasurer in 1957 and held that post until elected company treasurer in April, 1966.

Born in Youngstown, Ohio, Sagan is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University. He holds a master's degree in economics and a doctorate from the University of Illinois.

Sagan is married, has three children and lives at 22149 Long Boulevard, Dearborn.

Checkups for Men

Why do some astute businessmen watch their health as carefully as they watch their profit-and-loss statements? And, conversely, why do others, until confronted with a serious emergency?

The American Cancer Society suspects that in the answers to these questions is the solution to the problem of why more men (55 percent) succumbed to cancer last year than women (45 percent). The ratio was 55 men to 45 women.

Many types of cancer, the Society points out, can be cured if detected early and treated promptly. Thus some form of an early warning system should be set up by each individual and such a system exists. It is neither expensive nor bothersome.

THIS WARNING system isn't complicated, it consists of an annual physical checkup, including tests for cancer.

For various reasons, the American male ignores these checkups, while his distaff counterpart often welcomes them. The Cancer Society reports that three times as many women go for checkups as men. Even though the 40 percent total chalked up by the ladies is hardly cheering news, the 13 percent minority for the men is shockingly low.

Often as a result of the simply physical examination cancer is detected before it has begun to spread, and that is its most curable stage.

A Cancer Society survey found one reason advanced by many men for not going for checkups was that they "felt healthy." A somewhat smaller percentage gave as their excuse that their doctor had not suggested it. Surprisingly, some 10 percent admitted they had "no concern" about the disease.

REGARDLESS OF how many men insist they "feel healthy" the fact remains that 25 percent of the population will be struck by cancer during their lifetime. And, despite recent progress in controlling the disease, some 100,000 died in 1968 who might have been saved by earlier and better treatment.

All this points up the timeliness of the Cancer Society's slogan this year: Help yourself with a checkup and others with a check.

3 Approved For Sale of Fund Shares

WAYNE—Robert W. Geroux, associate manager, and Theodore D. Enright, John Gatter and Vincent J. Miceli, agents of The Life Insurance Company of Virginia's Wayne district office, have successfully completed the examination required by the National Association of Security Dealers and are now licensed by Michigan for the sale of mutual fund shares of the First Fund of Virginia, a new mutual fund established by Life of Virginia.

According to President D.H. Christian, the Fund's chief executive officer, "First Fund of Virginia's objectives are to achieve financial growth for Fund shareholders through an investment in the long-term progress of U.S. business on a selective basis to provide a current return on the shareholders' investment consistent with the primary objectives of capital growth."

Fund shares are to be sold by Life of Virginia representatives who have met state licensing requirements and completed the National Association of Security Dealers' examination, but shares of First Fund of Virginia are to be offered independent of any purchase of life insurance.

Supervisors Hear Beefs

Board Chairman Albert J. Zak, of Hamtramck, the 8th District supervisor, told the group he agreed that the equalization formula should be reviewed and revised.

HE PROPOSED that the House and Senate taxation committees be asked to hold a hearing on the subject at the City-County Building "as soon as possible."

An earlier motion by Supervisor Frederick Yates, of Detroit's 9th District, asking that the State Tax Commission be asked to review the equalization formula, was amended to include the request for the legislative hearing. The committee approved it unanimously.

A statement by Dearborn Heights Mayor John L. Canfield, who was unable to attend the hearing, was read into the record. Canfield charged that the present method of equalization "is both unfair and a farce." He added:

"The purpose of equalization is that each piece of property should appear on the assessment rolls at the same value regardless of whether it is in Dearborn Heights, Detroit, Dearborn, Trenton, Westland or Muskegon. This certainly is not true at the present time."

UNDER THE State Constitution, all property in Michigan, both commercial and residential, is supposed to be assessed at 50 percent of its "true cash value." In theory, therefore, a home with a market value of $10,000 should be assessed at $5,000.

Equalization is designed to insure that the aggregate property assessment within a city or township is at 50 percent of true cash value for the purpose of spreading property taxes. The County Bureau of Taxation is responsible for making appraisals and sales studies to determine whether or not the aggregate assessed value is at 50 percent. In turn, the State Tax Commission reviews the qualized valuation of all counties to determine whether they are at the 50 percent level.

If the assessed valuation within a governmental unit is below 50 percent, an equalization factor is applied to bring it up to the 50 percent level.

Canfield proposed that five or six categories of property, rather than city boundaries, be used for the purpose of equalization.

He contended that a house selling for $30,000 in Dearborn is assessed at a much lower rate than a house selling for the same price in adjacent Dearborn Heights because industrial property is assessed at a higher rate than residential in Dearborn.

IF CATEGORIES, such as industrial, residential, etc., were used instead of city boundaries, equivalent homes in the two communities would have equivalent assessments.

Members of the Supervisors Committee on Equalization, Taxation and Apportionment are, in addition to Hickey and Yates:

Joseph Cardinal, of Dearborn, District 21; Harvey J. Beadle, of Redford Township, District 19; and William R. Bryant, Jr., of Grosse Pointe Farms, District 3.

In addition to Zak, other supervisors who attended the hearing included Edmund Bizek, of Romulus, 24th District; Freddie G. Burton, of Detroit, 5th District; William L. Dunbar, of Detroit, 10th District; George F. Killeen, of Detroit, 2nd District; Carl D. Pursell, of Plymouth, 26th District; Frank B. Swapka, of Dearborn Heights, 20th District; Philip A. Tannian, of Detroit, 15th District; Robert L. Tripp, of Lincoln Park, 22nd District; Ralph Patrick Turco, of Westland, 25th District; and Joseph F. Young, of Detroit, 4th District.

Regular Health Checkups Urged by Cancer Society

NEW BOSTON—During the month of April The American Cancer Society intensifies its year-round education program and fund raising to conquer cancer.

Mrs. Evelyn Steffy, local chairman urges all to have their regular checkup.

"While it is most encouraging that over 200,000 Americans are being saved from cancer each year, there are, however, half as many again who will succumb to the disease because they did not get to their doctor in time," said Mrs. Victor W. Karvelis, chairman of the Huron Township Branch of ACS, that includes the Belleville area.

Admitting that it is still "very difficult" to detect some forms of cancer. Sixty percent of all cancers in women and 40 percent of all cancers in men develop in areas of the body that can be easily examined. And these most common forms of the disease usually can be treated effectively if caught in time.

BY MAKING a practice of seeing your doctor every year for a thorough health checkup no matter how well you feel, you will be in a position to receive prompt treatment if cancer should be discovered. With a knowledge of cancer's seven warning signals, coupled with regular checkups, it should enable many people to be saved from cancer if it should appear.

Despite the all-out attempts of the American Cancer Society to educate the public to the value of regular physical checkups some 57 percent of the population avoids this simple health precaution.

Why if a person's health—even life—is at stake, do a majority of our citizens refrain from these simple, life-saving checkups?

THE KEY reason most people did not go for checkups was that they "felt healthy". Some 10 percent, did not go because they "had no concern over cancer". Around 8 percent, did not go because their doctor had not suggested it. Surprisingly enough, money, or the lack of it seemed to bother only 4 percent, while 2 percent claimed they had "no time". Another 2 percent confessed they were "afraid to go".

In the group of those who went regularly for checkups, women led the men by some 40 percent to 13 percent.

The age group most interested in their personal health were those between 20 and 49 years old. College-educated group topped the others as did those in the higher income brackets.

The high value the Cancer Society places on these regular physical exams, can be noted in the slogan for its 1969 Cancer Crusade to be staged during April.

This year the Society's message will be "Help yourself with a checkup and others with a check".

Poison by Any Other Name is Just as Deadly

To the approximately half million children who accidentally ingest potentially toxic substances each year, it matters little what name the product carries. Since there are approximately 250,000 potentially toxic products commercially available on the market today, these children have a wide variety of choice.

Gerald E' Montgomery, executive director of the Greater Detroit Safety Council, reminded all that Poison Prevention Week will be observed this year, March 16-22.

It is hoped that every household in the Metropolitan Area will be alerted to the danger of poison, especially in regard to children. Although many children become victims of the obvious poisons, (insecticides, rodent poisons, etc.) the great majority of the hundreds of children who die each year from poisoning, do so because they have eaten or drunk some substance not generally considered "poison".

REGARDLESS OF the name it goes by, poison is deadly. Children, especially those under four or five years of age will eat or drink almost anything that "looks" good, or is found in a container that normally would not contain anything dangerous to the child.

Children will drink kerosene, paint thinner or any other liquid if some thoughtless person has poured it into a pop bottle.

The list of products that have caused death or hospitalization is endless. Hair shampoo, drain cleaner, detergents, moth balls, furniture polish, etc. is only the beginning of a long list of deadly poisons called by other names. Internal medicines are high on the list, with aspirin accounting for approximately 25 percent of all accidental poisoning.

The solution is not easy but there is a solution. Keep potentially poisonous substances out of reach of small children and if necessary, under lock and key. This is especially true of the medicine cabinet and the cleaning materials usually stored under the sink.

AND IF YOUR CHILD DOES INGEST SOME TOXIC SUBSTANCE—CALL THE POISON CENTER IMMEDIATELY!

The most completely equipped center to answer any question regarding poison or its antidote is Children's Hospital of Michigan. 833-1000.

Fisher 111 Promoted By NBD

DETROIT—Charles T. Fisher, III, has been elected Executive Vice-President of National Bank of Detroit. Fisher heads the United States Division of the bank.

Fisher joined National Bank of Detroit as an Assistant Vice-President in 1958 after the death of his father who had been the bank's president for many years. He was elected a Vice-President in 1961, and in 1964 was placed in charge of the bank's National Division.

Belleville's Branch of NBD is located on Main Street at Fourth Street.

He is a member of the Association of Reserve City Bankers, the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants, and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

The CIPSCO NEWS published by the Central Illinois Public Service Company commented that people who evidently do not understand capitalism often have the impression that there is something unjust about profits, or that only a small group of people benefit from profits. Since there are an estimated 25 million stockholders in the United States, it is difficult to understand this reasoning. Profits are the cornerstone of capitalism, and in the United States capitalism is for everyone.

To Smoke or Not

The controversy concerning the use of tobacco continues to rage. Does it or does it not shorten life by causing or accelerating cancer, heart trouble, emphysema. Commercial interests vs. medical researchers go at it "hot and heavy". Filters are developed and ballyhooed, along with claims for lowered tars and nicotine, ad infinitum. Although the controversy regarding the health hazards may never be resolved, there is one area where there can be no disagreement, reports Gerald E. Montgomery, executive director of the Greater Detroit Safety Council. This is in the loss of life and property caused each year through fires started by careless smokers. Four or five thousand lives (many of them small children) and more than a half billion dollars in property loss is the price we pay each year for our smoking. . . .

SMOKERS MAY or may not care about their health if they may disagree with research findings. They have the right to do so. But, why do they assume the right to deprive others of their property and possibly their lives? Could you, as a smoker, be adding to this completely unnecessary loss?
